How to get there?

Coming from the centre of Leuven

- Go to the cross-roads 'Naamse Poort' on the ring around Leuven.
- Turn southwards (at the Total service station).
- The road immediately splits in two, go right.
- That is the 'Kardinaal Mercierlaan', follow this lane lined with chestnut trees for about one kilometer until you reach the 'Kantineplein', a cross-roads square.
- Enter the park immediately to your right (watch out for bikers).

By car coming from Brussels or Liege

- Take the highway E40 (Brussels - Liege).
- Take the exit E314 / Leuven (no. 15).
- Keep to the right and follow the sign "Leuven" (leave the E314).
- Turn right at the third traffic lights (direction Campus Arenberg, this is the Celestijnenlaan).
- Drive on for about 500 m, until the bridge over the river Dijle. Just past the bridge, on the left, you can drive into the Arenberg park.
- Continue on the road parallel to the river until past the Arenberg castle. About 50 m downstream from the castle a public car parking is available.

By car coming from Hasselt / Eindhoven / Aachen

- Take the highway E314 (Aachen - Leuven).
- Take the exit "Leuven" (no. 15). This is the last exit before the E40.
- Turn right at the third traffic lights (direction Campus Arenberg, this is the Celestijnenlaan).
- Drive on for about 500 m, until the bridge over the river Dijle. Just past the bridge, on the left, you can drive into the Arenberg park.

By train, taxi or bus

Please pay attention to the fact that you have to take first the train to Leuven and not to Louvain-la-neuve (Louvain-la-neuve is situated near Wavre and houses the French speaking equivalent of the Katholieke Universiteit).

In the station of Leuven you can board the local train which goes to Wavre and Louvain-la-Neuve. The first station is that of Heverlee. If you get out there it is a ten minute walk to the Arenberg castle.
At Leuven station, you can take a taxi (this will cost between € 10 and € 15 and will take around 10 minutes).

You can also take bus number 2 in the direction "Heverlee Campus", or bus number 616 in the direction of "Melsbroek Parking Noord" (both busses stops on the Kantien square, 200m of the castle). Alternatively, take bus number 1 in the direction "Heverlee Boskant"; in that case you have to get off at Heverlee station, and walk 10 minutes (direction NW: Sint-Lambertusstraat - Vandenbemptlaan).

Yet another alternative is to take the train from Leuven in the direction of Wavres/Louvain-la-Neuve! till Heverlee train station (1 stop) and then walk to the Arenberg castle (see above).

At the "Kantien" you will see the park with the Arenberg Castle in front of you.

By plane

In the Brussels Airport (Zaventem), take the train to Leuven (about 16 minutes), not Louvain-la-Neuve! You'll find trains for Leuven by searching for: Leuven or Landen. From Leuven station, proceed as mentioned above.

Another airport close to Leuven is the Brussels South Charleroi Airport. In Charleroi you have to take the train to the Brussels South train station where you take another train to Leuven.

The Thermotechnical Institute is located behind the building of Metallurgy and Materials Engineering.
